

INTERVIEW WITH LONNY PRICE (MASTER HAROLD AND THE BOYS)

Identifier 2011.193.89

Type media

Description

1 sound cassette [micro-audio] (33 min. 58 sec.) : analog, 1 access CD; 1 WAV preservation master; 1 MP3 web copy.

Interview with director Lonny Price by Ted Sod for the Education department, conducted in 2003. Interview features Price discussing revisiting the play after twenty years now as the director, being asked to direct, the timelessness and humanistic aspects of the play, the character of Sam as a father figure, the issues present in the play, casting the role of Hally, the relationship between Sam and Hally, learning from Athol Fugard, the play educating New York audiences on the apartheid, working with the creative team on this production, the time period and setting of the play, and having young students see the play.

Related staged production

Master Harold and the Boys

Related Entities Lonny Price, Ted Sod

Related Collections Master Harold...and the Boys (2003) Production Files