

KATE KELLER RED DRESSING GOWN WITH SLIP (ALL MY SONS 2019)

Identifier 2019.150.7

Type costume

Description1. Red and black printed dot pattern dressing gown, ankle length wrapped robe closure. Two inside strings for extra security and one wide outside tie with thin loops attached at the waist to keep it in place. There is a small brown button at the top of the right side of the dress with opposing button loop for fastening the two lapel sides together. There is pleating/ruching on the top seam of shoulder area, long square sleeves, two angled pockets, and shoulder pads. The robe measures 20" W x 54" L.

2. Peach knee length slip/underdress with a loose fitting top, wide straps with a v-neck and tight pleating under bust area. It is made from a thick silky fabric that is shiny on the inside with a hidden zipper up the side with a hook and eye closure at the top. There is a simple wide hem on the edges and no trim. The label reads Eric Winterling, Inc. Ms Bening and the dress measures 19"W x 43" L. Possibly worn under the other dresses for the show.

A pair of grey slippers are worn with this outfit but not included with the costume.

Related staged production

All My Sons (2019)

Related Entities Arthur Miller, Jane Greenwood, Eric Winterling, Annette Bening