Description

1. Cream button down dress shirt from the brand Cego Custom Shirts. The sewn in label on the inside collar reads Tracy Letts with the number 1. It's a thicker material with thin white vertical lines running through it. The breast pocket is pointed at the bottom and has a mirrored pointed seam line that runs parallel across the top. 19"W x 35"L.
2. Navy pinstripe suit pants with slightly cuffed bottoms and two hook closure, three interior buttons and a zipper. Eric Winterling Inc. New York label with printed Mr. Letts on the inside. Two black buttons are sewn into the added back panel for suspender attachment (worn in show but not included with costume). Lighter blue and grey lines run through the suit to make the pattern. They measure 20" W x 44" L.
3. Matching Navy pinstripe suit jacket with padded shoulders and a thick lining. Eric Winterling Inc. New York label with printed Mr. Letts on the inside. Three navy tortoise shell buttons are in the front and three smaller matching buttons are on each sleeve. Interior lining on the sleeves is a white and black pinstripe pattern, black fabric is used for the rest of the lining. They measure 21" W x 33" L.
4. Red tie with brown and cream geometric pattern, no label or brand given. It measures 3.75" W x 49" L.
5. Allen Edmonds dark brown leather oxford shoes with T. Letts label inside, size 12.5.
